MACK B. RHOADES, IV

Director of Athletics

University of Missouri Chancellor R. Bowen Loftin announced March 9, 2015, that Mack B. Rhoades IV had been appointed director of Intercollegiate Athletics at Mizzou, a post he assumed on April 27, 2015.

Rhoades came to Columbia, Mo., after serving as vice president for Intercollegiate Athletics at the University of Houston, where he oversaw 17 varsity sports and led a revival in academics and facilities since his arrival in August 2009. Prior to joining the University of Houston, Rhoades was director of athletics at the University of Akron.

At the University of Houston, Rhoades rejuvenated the athletics program across the board, including enhancements in the student athlete experience, academics, facilities, fundraising and competitiveness. During the 2013-14 academic year, 10 of the 17 sports programs competed in NCAA postseason competition. The football team participated in bowl games four times in a six-year span, including the 2011 season when the Cougars were ranked as high as No. 6 in the BCS standings and competed in two consecutive bowl games in 2013 and 2014. In almost every academic measurement, including GPA and APR, Houston reached record levels; Rhoades created the Cougar Pride Leadership Academy to provide life-long leadership skills for student-athletes.

During his tenure, Houston raised nearly $100 million and built $160 million worth of new facilities, including a new on-campus football stadium and a men's and women's basketball development center. Rhoades also negotiated a new multi-media rights deal for the athletics program as well as one of the top five facility naming rights deals at the collegiate level.

Additionally, Rhoades and Dr. Renu Khator successfully steered Houston into a new era as the university was invited in December 2011 to join The American Athletic Conference beginning with the 2013-14 academic year. The first year in The American saw one of the most successful years in Houston Athletics history as Houston's programs combined for 157 victories, 17 American individual championships, 10 NCAA postseason berths and two American team titles. The surge in success led to Houston's highest national finish in the Learfield Directors' Cup since 2000-01.

Under Rhoades' leadership, Cougar Pride, Houston Athletics' fundraising arm, set an annual donations record for the fifth consecutive year in 2013-14 as more than 3,100 Cougar Pride members contributed $4.5 million, topping the previous record of $3.5 million the year before.

Prior to his arrival at Houston, Rhoades helped Akron reach unprecedented success on and off the field. During his tenure, Akron student-athletes earned: 765 total Dean's List honors, 213 All-Conference honors, 83 Academic All-Conference awards, 20 team championships, 14 Conference Player of the Year awards and 12 All-America honors.

His drive for perfection and expectation of excellence quickly put his name on the map nationally. Rhoades served as a member of the NCAA Division I Championships/Sports Management Cabinet -- also serving on the Administrative Committee of that cabinet, as well as leading the communications committee for the MAC.

Rhoades came to Akron after a seven-year stint at UTEP, where he most recently served as the executive senior associate athletics director. He worked his way up the ranks with the Miners after joining the staff as assistant AD for development. In his final role with UTEP, Rhoades oversaw all fundraising, the marketing and media relations offices as well as football external operations, men's basketball, men's golf, licensing, Miner Athletic Club and the athletics ticket office.

Rhoades holds a bachelor's degree in health sciences from the University of Arizona and a master's degree in athletics administration/sports management from Indiana University.

He and his wife, Amy, have three daughters - Nicolette, Natalie and Noelle.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Direct all Missouri home game credential requests through e-mail, by sending a message to Associate Director of Media Relations Kate Lakin. Requests should be made at least one week prior to the game.

MEDIA RELATIONS

F.Y.I.

The MU Strategic Communications Office will provide rosters and game notes and for the Tigers and for opponents (when available) at each home game. Starting lineups will be available in the Audrey J. Walton Track - Soccer Field - Stadium press box 10 minutes before game time.

INTERVIEWS

Members of the 2015 Missouri soccer team and coaching staff will be available for interviews by appointment only. In consideration for the student-athletes and their schedules, please request player interviews at least one day in advance. During the week, interviews will primarily be conducted following practice. Please contact Kate Lakin in the Missouri Media Relations Office at (573) 884-8519 or lakinke@missouri.edu for interview availability and practice times. University of Missouri policy prohibits the releasing of student-athletes' home phone numbers to members of the media.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS

Coach Blitz will conduct post-game interviews in a designated area after a brief cooling-off period. A list of requests for player interviews should be submitted before the completion of the game. Player interviews will be conducted immediately following Coach Blitz's remarks. Only credentialed media personnel will be permitted onto the soccer field.

SEASON TICKET INFORMATION

For information on how to purchase soccer season tickets, call the University of Missouri ticket office at 1-800-CAT-PAWS or 884-PAWS in Columbia. Ticket order forms may also be obtained by visiting Mizzou's official website at www.mutigers.com.

Missouri soccer is expecting an exciting home slate, with non-conference games against TCU, SMU, Oregon State and Nebraska. The Tigers also host Southeastern Conference foes Auburn, South Carolina, Ole Miss, Georgia, Tennessee and Texas A&M.

TIMOTHY M. WOLFE

President

Timothy M. Wolfe is the 23rd president of the four-campus University of Missouri System—one of the nation's largest public research university systems with more than 75,000 students and nearly a half million alumni worldwide.

Since joining the university in 2012, Mr. Wolfe's top priorities have included increasing overall awareness of the role the system's four campuses play in advancing the education, economy, health, innovation, arts, culture and the overall quality of life across the state of Missouri; leading the campuses in a strategic planning process that sets a clear strategy for success in the next five to ten years; finding and implementing opportunities for more efficiencies across the system; investing in the university's human capital and expanding research and economic development initiatives.

Part of his success in leading the university forward is due to Mr. Wolfe's recognized leadership in recruiting, building and leading successful teams by creating innovative strategies and clear execution plans across complex enterprises. He has more than 30 years of experience in information technology, infrastructure software, consulting and sales leadership. He began his career in 1980 at IBM Corporation in Missouri, first as a sales representative in Jefferson City then as a manager in Kansas City. For the next 20 years, he assumed progressively more responsible management positions, leading to vice president and general manager of the global distribution sector.

From 2000 to 2003, Mr. Wolfe served as executive vice president of Covansys, a global consulting and technology services company headquartered in Michigan. In 2003, he joined Novell, a leading provider of infrastructure software. As President of the Americas and as a member of the senior management team for the organization, he was responsible for more than 3,000 employees and partner firms in the United States, Canada and Latin America. Wolfe was influential in developing the company's overall strategy, product development, mergers and acquisitions, marketing investments and community service initiatives.

Mr. Wolfe grew up in Columbia, and is an alumnus of the University of Missouri-Columbia, graduating in 1980 with a BS from the Trulaske College of Business. In 1995, he graduated from Harvard Business School's Advanced Management Program.

Mr. Wolfe serves on several academic and civic boards and is married to Molly Wolfe. They have twin teenagers, daughter, Madison, and son, Tyler.

DR. R. BOWIN LOFTIN

Chancellor

R. Bowen Loftin became chancellor of the University of Missouri Feb. 1, 2014. He is Mizzou's 22nd chief executive officer. He is also a professor of physics at MU.

Loftin was president of Texas A&M University from 2010 to 2014, following eight months as interim president and four years as a university vice president assigned as the chief executive officer of Texas A&M's Galveston branch campus, where he was also a professor of maritime systems engineering.

Before joining Texas A&M, Loftin served at Old Dominion University in Norfolk, Va., as a professor of electrical and computer engineering and a professor of computer science. He was Old Dominion's director of simulation programs and had responsibility for the institution's graduate programs in modeling and simulation. He also served as executive director of the Virginia Modeling, Analysis and Simulation Center.

Earlier in his career, he was a professor in and chair of the Department of Computer Science and director of the NASA Virtual Environments Research Institute at the University of Houston.

Loftin earned a bachelor's degree in physics from Texas A&M in 1970. He earned a master's degree in physics in 1973 and a doctorate in physics in 1975, both from Rice University.

Loftin is a frequent consultant to industry and government in the areas of modeling and simulation, advanced training technologies and scientific/engineering data visualization. He is the author or co-author of more than 100 technical publications.

Loftin has served on many advisory committees and panels sponsored by governmental and professional organizations. His citations and honors include the University of Houston-Downtown Awards for Excellence in Teaching and in Service (twice), the American Association of Artificial Intelligence Award for an innovative application of artificial intelligence, NASA's Space Act Award, the NASA Public Service Medal and the 1995 NASA Invention of the Year Award. In addition, he has received the IEEE Computer Society's Meritorious Service Award (2005), the IEEE Virtual Reality Conference Career Award (2008), and is a Charter Fellow of the National Academy of Inventors.

COACHING STAFF

BRYAN BLITZ

Head Coach • 20th season
Overall Record: 253-209-32
Mizzou Record: 208-165-24
Tulsa (1987)

Bryan Blitz begins his 20th season at the helm of the Tigers soccer program and enters 2018 with a 208-165-24 record at Missouri since he was hired as the program's first head coach in 1996. A dedicated coach, there is little time off the field when he is not working to improve his team. Making an immediate impact to the program with his stellar recruiting techniques, Blitz has set a standard by enlisting some of the nation's top players each season.

During the 2014 campaign, Blitz led the Tigers to a 12-7-3 record and a 6-4-1 mark in SEC action, including a 7-1-1 record in home contests. Blitz led Mizzou to the NCAA Tournament for the sixth time in program history and advanced to the second round after posting a 3-1 win over Kansas in the opening round.

In 2013, Mizzou knocked off three top-25 teams, which were the most wins over ranked opponents were the most for the Tigers since 2008. Missouri recorded its first ranked win with a 1-0 defeat over No. 7 Florida, then handed No. 7 South Carolina only its second loss of the season on Oct. 18 and posted a dramatic 2-1 double-overtime win at No. 25 Kentucky on Oct. 25.

In the program's first season in the Southeastern Conference, Blitz led the Tigers to a 14-7-1 season and their fifth NCAA Tournament berth. The squad's 14 wins tie for the second-most in a single-season. Mizzou also recorded an 8-5 SEC mark and advanced to the semifinals of the SEC Tournament in Orange Beach, Ala.

After a 7-10-2 season in 2010, Blitz led the Tigers to a 12-8-1 record in 2011 despite 13 players who were new to the program. Mizzou set a new program record for non-conference winning percentage (.909) during the year and tied the team's consecutive wins record (seven).

In 2009 Missouri reached new highs as the team claimed the Big 12 Regular Season title for the first time in school history. Blitz was honored as the Big 12 Coach of the Year for his work to mark the second time in his career he earned the honor.

In 2008 when the Tigers had arguably their most successful season in program history. Blitz directed his team to a 16-5-2 mark, the Big 12 Conference Tournament championship and into the second round of the NCAA Tournament for the second consecutive season. Over the course of the year, Mizzou set school records with wins (16), fewest losses (five), shutouts (12), fewest goals allowed (19) and goals against average (0.80), among others. The Tigers advanced once again to the second round of the NCAA Tournament, an event Missouri hosted for the fourth time, but fell to Illinois in a penalty kick shootout after 110 minutes of play.

In 2007, Blitz directed his young Mizzou squad to a 13-8-1 record and the third NCAA Tournament berth in program history. Playing once again at friendly Walton Stadium, Mizzou advanced to the second round of the tournament for just the second time after defeating Southeast Missouri State (SEMO) in a shootout. The Tigers came up just short in the second round, falling to eventual national champion USC, 1-0, in overtime.

Over the course of the season, Missouri reached No. 5 in the national rankings, its highest-ever, and received unprecedented accolades from the Big 12 Conference. Freshman Alysha Bonnick became the first Tiger to earn a post-season award after winning Big 12 Rookie of the Year honors and Blitz was honored as the Big 12 Coach of the Year. Additionally, sophomore Kristin Andrighetto was just the second Missouri player to earn a spot on the All-Big 12 first team. Four Tigers were named to the second team and three players were selected to the All-Newcomer team. On the national level, Andrighetto earned All-America fourth team honors from Soccer Buzz and Bonnick was a Freshman All-America second team selection from two different publications.

In his first year with Missouri, Blitz began putting his skills to the test during the inaugural season of Tiger women's soccer. MU finished the year 6-14 and 4-5 in league play.

The Tigers continued to improve under Blitz's tutelage and logged a 7-12 record, going 3-7 in Big 12 play during the following season. Missouri's second year also saw the national spotlight as Jennifer Kram was named to the Soccer America National Collegiate Team of the Week—MU's first national recognition. The accolades would not stop there however as Mizzou placed two athletes, Nikki Thole (third team) and Kristin Boeker (honorable mention) to the Soccer Buzz Freshman All-America team.

In 1998, Blitz led Missouri to its first winning season going 11-9-1 and 6-5 in the Big 12. The Tigers also placed Thole and Boeker to All-Big 12 teams and had five athletes (Thole, Boeker, Jackie Adamec, Amy Timmermann and Erin Grimsley) honored as all-tournament team members.

MU's fourth season proved to be a record-setting campaign for the Tigers as Blitz led Missouri to a 14-8-1 season record and posted a 6-3-1 Big 12 mark in 1999. The Tigers also advanced to their first NCAA Tournament. The Tigers fell to Marquette in their national post-season debut, but put forth a strong showing as they took the Golden Eagles to a 3-2 quadruple overtime loss.

Despite the loss, Blitz coached his athletes to an astounding season. Thole received All-America accolades from the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA), SoccerBuzz and College Soccer Online.

By 2000, Blitz had conditioned his squad into a fine tuned machine. The Tigers earned their highest ranking in the NSCAA poll after defeating No. 18 ranked Florida State and No. 12 ranked Wake Forest in back-to-back games to win a 12th-place ranking. The Tigers split the season 10-10 with a 5-5 Big 12 record.

In 2001, Blitz reloaded the Tiger program known for its physical intensity with nine newcomers. The young squad quickly made its mark going 13-8, with a 5-5 Big 12 mark, and set a new precedent with six shutouts on the season. In addition, the Tigers defended their first perfect game in school history outshooting Indiana State 34-0 on their way to a 4-0 victory.

In 2002 the Tigers posted an 11-7-2 record with a 5-4-1 mark in the Big 12 to finish fourth in league standings. The season proved arduous as the Tigers played a record six overtime games during the year. Mizzou had two athletes named to the SoccerBuzz All-Central Region teams in Lacy Moore and Jennifer Nobis.

Keeping stride in 2003, Blitz successfully navigated his squad through one of the toughest schedules in the country. Facing 10 opponents ranked in the nation's top-25 at some point during the season, Mizzou made a late season rally advancing to both the Big 12 Tournament championship final and the NCAA second round. Highlighting the push, the Tigers overcame the odds to record an amazing come-from-behind victory over No. 4 ranked Texas A&M (5-4). Mizzou also picked up the program's first win over No. 22 Nebraska rolling the Huskers ,3-2, during Big 12 Tournament play.

Rounding out the season with a 12-11-1 record and an eighth-place Big 12 finish, the Tiger's made history as the first No. 8 seed to claim a victory during Big 12 Tournament play.

In 2004, Blitz led the Tigers to a sixth-place finish in the Big 12. Mizzou defeated two ranked teams in 2004, including then-No. 6 ranked Texas A&M, recording the program's first-ever win in College Station, Texas.

In 2005, under Blitz's direction, the Tigers posted a 9-8-3 overall record and qualified for the Big 12 Tournamtent for the ninth time in the conference's 10 year history. In 2006 he took the Tigers to a 7-0 start as the squad reeled off five straight shutouts to begin the season.

Blitz began his head coaching career at Butler University (Ind.) as the program's inaugural head coach in 1991. In his fifth season, he took the Bulldogs from obscurity to the national spotlight in an undefeated run through the Midwestern Collegiate Conference and the team's first national ranking. Blitz earned the Midwestern Collegiate Conference Coach of the Year award for his work in the 1995 season and received an invitation to help coach the U.S. Women's National Team.

Developing Blitz's unique collegiate coaching perspective, he has worked and played in soccer communities around the world improving his knowledge and abilities. Blitz traveled to England to play for one year while he was in college. He returned to the states and to the University of Tulsa, where Blitz helped start the Golden Hurricane women's program as an assistant coach in 1987.

He took two years off from coaching to play in the Southwest Indoor Soccer League and the Northeast Super Soccer League (in Dallas and New York) before a desire to earn a master's degree in business led him to Butler, where he met his wife, Alie. There, he became a graduate assistant for the men's team and two years later took the reins as a women's head coach for the first time.

DON TRENTHAM

Associate Head Coach
First Season at Mizzou
Columbia College (1999)

Mizzou soccer Head Coach Bryan Blitz has announced the addition of Don Trentham to the Tiger coaching staff as an associate head coach. The opportunity is a homecoming for Trentham, an O'Fallon, Mo., native who played collegiately at Columbia College.

"I am so excited to have Don join our staff at Mizzou," Blitz said. "He's a proven coach whose defensive record is second to none and is a tireless recruiter. In addition, he's a family man with strong values who our players, staff and fans will easily embrace. Don will help us continue to reach our goal of winning a national championship."

Trentham spent the last three seasons as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Colorado, where he helped the program post a record of 36-22-7 and two straight NCAA Tournament berths during that span. Under his guidance, the Buffalo defense posted 29 shutouts and goals against average of 0.98 in his three seasons in Boulder. This past campaign, Trentham's defense recorded 12 shutouts and a 0.76 goals against average.

Before his time at Colorado, Trentham spent one season as an assistant at the University of Wyoming, helping the Cowgirls to a 12-5-4 record and the program's first ever spot in the Mountain West Conference Tournament Championship game.

Trentham enjoyed a nine year stint (2002-10) as the head coach at Montana State University Billings, turning around a program that never enjoyed a winning season into a nationally recognized NCAA Division II program. He finished his career at MSUB as the winningest coach in the program's history, with a record 85-75-10. In 2010 he was named the Great Northwest Athletic Conference Coach of the Year after guiding MSUB to its first-ever NCAA tournament bid.

He holds a USSF National Goalkeeping license, a NSCAA Advanced National Diploma and a USSF "A" license.

Trentham earned his bachelor's degree in education from Columbia College in 1999 and a master's degree in education in health and physical education from East Stroudsburg in 2007. He and his wife, the former Jennifer Lawler, have two children, Landon and Adelyn.

MOLLY SCHNEIDER

Assistant Coach
First Season at Mizzou
Minnesota (2006)

Molly Schneider, who spent two seasons as an assistant coach for the Mizzou soccer team in 2007 and 2008, has rejoined the program in the same capacity. Schneider, a former All-Big Ten first team honoree as a keeper at Minnesota, will serve as the Tigers' goalkeepers' coach.

"We're honored to welcome Molly back to the Mizzou soccer family," Blitz said. "She was a huge part of our NCAA Tournament and Big 12 championship staff during her time here. Her attention to detail and personality will be a huge addition to the staff as we strive to win our first SEC and national championships."

Schneider spent the 2007 and 2008 seasons as an assistant with the Tigers and was integral in helping Mizzou earn consecutive NCAA Tournament berths and claim the 2008 Big 12 Conference Tournament. The Tigers posted a combined 29-13-3 record in her two seasons in Columbia, including a school record 16 wins in 2008. During her final year at Mizzou, the posted a program record 0.8 goals against average and notched 12 shutouts. The Tigers allowed just 19 goals in their 23 games.

She csmr to Mizzou from Sporting KC, where she served as manager of camps and special projects. With Sporting, Schneider directed all camps, including developing curriculums, managing budgets, overseeing marketing efforts and handling all logistics.

Before her time at Sporting KC, Schneider spent five seasons (2009-13) as an assistant at North Florida. With the Ospreys, she helped the program earn its first Atlantic Sun Conference Championship berth in program history in 2010, then receive conference tournament bids the following two season. In 2011 and 2012, North Florida advanced to the semifinals of the championship. Under her tutelage, keeper Megan Dorsey set the program's single season shutouts record (in Divison I competition) with seven.

She holds a USSF "C" license and an NSCAA level III Goalkeeping Diploma.

Schneider started her collegiate playing career at Milwaukee (2002-03) before spending her last two seasons at Minnesota (2004-05). She claimed All-Horizon League first and freshman team honors at Milwaukee before earning All-Big Ten first team and Soccer Buzz All-Great Lakes Region second team honors at Minnesota in 2005.

A native of Rochester, Minn., she earned a bachelor's degree in kinesiology with an emphasis in exercise science from Minnesota in 2006.

KOLBY BANKER

Volunteer Assistant Coach
First Season at Mizzou
St. Bonaventure (2014)

Kolby Banker is in his first season as volunteer assistant coach with the Mizzou soccer program.

A native of Grand Island, N.Y., Banker comes to Mizzou after a year as an assistant coach at Texas A&M-Corpus Christi during the 2014 season.

Banker entered coaching after a collegiate career at St. Bonaventure, where he appeared in all 19 games and making 18 starts as a senior. In addition to providing a strong defensive presence, he also was able to jump in on the offensive end, scoring a goal in a 3-1 win over Niagara, when he headed home a corner kick at the far post. He also assisted on Brad Vanino's second goal in a victory over Howard on Sept. 8.

In his four-year career, Banker played in 66 games on the back line for the Bonnies, making 61 starts over that period. St. Bonaventure increased its win total in each of Banker's final three years. In his freshman campaign, his only goal came in the Atlantic 10 Tournament quarterfinals against St. Louis.

Banker comes from a coaching pedigree, as both of his parents have spent time on the sidelines. His mother, Jenepher, coached basketball at Penn State-Behrend at the collegiate level, then went on to coach at Grand Island High School for 15 years. His father, Brett, coached softball and served as an assistant athletics director at Penn State-Behrend and is currently the Director of Coaching for the Grand Island Soccer Club. Banker's sister, Kallie, is on the women's basketball team at the University of Rhode Island.

BRITTANY BOEHM

Director of Operations
First Season at Mizzou
San Jose State (2011)

Brittany Boehm is in her first season as the Director of Operations for the Mizzou soccer program. In her role with the Tigers, Boehm helps with all facets of the day-to-day aspects of the program and spearheads the team's travel and gameday operations.

Boehm came to Columbia from San José State, where she was the Administrative Assistant for Deputy Director of Internal Operations Marie Tuite and handled other day-to-day operations within the department.

On the pitch, Boehm was a four-year member (2006-09) of the Spartans women's soccer team and in 2009 concluded her collegiate playing career as part of the regular season Western Athletic Conference Championship side.

She also coached Division I youth soccer for the Mustang Soccer Club in Danville, Calif., and the Palo Alto Soccer Club.

Boehm earned a Bachelor's Degree in Liberal Arts and Sciences/Liberal Studies from San José State in 2011.

SAM LAWSON

Director of Performance Analysis
Third Season at Mizzou
University Campus Suffolk (2012)

Sam Lawson returns for his third season at Mizzou as the Director of Performance Analysis. With the Tigers, Lawson handles game and practice film and coordinating video exchange.

Lawson came to Mizzou from New Zealand, where he served as Performance Analysis for the Napier City Rovers of the Central Premier League. Wtih the Rovers, he provided game and post-match analysis for players and coaches.

He also spent time as a Performance Analyst with Hawkes Bay United in Napier, New Zealand from December 2012 - March 2013. Before his move to New Zealand, Lawson worked as the Academy Video Analyst at the Ipswich Town Football Club in Ipswich, Suffolk, England.

Lawson spent the first 16 years of his life in Germany before moving to the United Kingdom in 2007. He earned a degree in Sport and Exercise Science from University Campus Suffolk in 2012 and is working towards a master's degree at Mizzou.

OPPONENTS

Since its formation in 1933, the SEC has directed and organized interscholastic athletic competitions, conducted tournaments and prescribed eligibility rules for student-athletes. The Conference also facilitates and assists its member institutions in maintaining intercollegiate athletic programs compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports.

The SEC's mission statement reflects the priorities of the league. "The purpose of the Southeastern Conference is to assist its member institutions in the maintenance of programs of intercollegiate athletics which are compatible with the highest standards of education and competitive sports."

The Southeastern Conference won seven national championships in 2013-14: Baseball (Vanderbilt); Equestrian (Georgia); Men's Golf (Alabama); Gymnastics (Florida); Softball (Florida); Women's Swimming & Diving (Georgia); and Women's Outdoor Track & Field (Texas A&M). The SEC also had a national runner-up in six sports, including: Men's Basketball (Kentucky); Equestrian (South Carolina); Football (Auburn); Softball (Alabama); Men's Indoor Track & Field (Arkansas); and Men's Outdoor Track & Field (Florida).

In its history, the SEC has won 211 national championships, 120 men's and 90 women's titles. Since 2000, the SEC has won 94 national crowns, including 48 men's titles and 46 women's titles.

• In the "big three" men's sports - football, basketball and baseball, the SEC has won 14 national championships during the last eight academic years. The league has won seven of the last eight football national championships.

• Since 2006, the SEC has had a national champion in 17 of its 21 sponsored sports - football, men's basketball, baseball, men's indoor track & field, men's outdoor track & field, women's indoor track & field, women's outdoor track & field, women's swimming & diving, gymnastics, women's tennis, men's tennis, men's swimming and diving, equestrian, men's golf, women's golf, softball and women's basketball.

The Southeastern Conference had 46 Capital One Academic All-Americans in 2013-14. The league had 17 student-athletes earn first-team honors. The Capital One Academic All-America Teams are voted on by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA). The 46 student-athletes represent 11 of the SEC 14 schools while seven schools had at least one person on the first-team. Since 2003, the SEC has had 232 student-athletes earn first-team Capital One Academic All-America status.

The 17 SEC student-athletes who earned Capital One Academic All-America first-team status in 2013-14 were: Florida women's swimmer Elizabeth Beisel; LSU men's track athlete Joseph Caraway; Alabama women's tennis player Mary Daines; Florida men's swimmer Brad deBorde; Alabama softball player Molly Fichtner; Alabama softball player Kaila Hunt; Alabama gymnast Kim Jacob; Auburn volleyball player Camila Jersonsky; Alabama softball player Haylie McCleney; Alabama women's golfer Stephanie Meadow; Georgia football player Aaron Murray; Tennessee softball player Ellen Renfroe; Kentucky men's soccer player Tyler Riggs; Georgia women's swimmer Laura Ryan; Tennessee softball player Madison Shipman; Alabama men's golfer Cory Whitsett; and Alabama men's golfer Bobby Wyatt.

More than 2,400 student-athletes were named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll in 2013-14. Members of the SEC Academic Honor Roll must have a 3.0 grade point average for either the previous academic year or his/her academic career at the SEC institution. The number represents almost half of the student-athletes that competed in the SEC last year.

MIZZOU HISTORY

2014 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS

• Mizzou earned its sixth NCAA Tournament berth in program history in 2014 and advanced to the second round before falling in overtime to Washington.

• The Tigers concluded the season with a 12-7-3 record, including a 6-4-1 record in Southeastern Conference action, en route to a fourth-place finish in the league.

• Senior Kaysie Clark, juniors Candace Johnson and Reagan Russell and freshman Kaitlyn Clark all earned All-SEC honors in 2014. Kaysie Clark claimed a spot on the first team for the second consecutive year, Johnson and Russell earned spots on the second team and Kaitlyn Clark was named to the All-Freshman Team.

• Kaysie Clark also became the third Tiger in program history to earn All-South Region first team honors, joining Nikki Thole (1999) and Crystal Wagner (2009).

• Redshirt junior McKenzie Sauerwein concluded her Tiger career with a slew of school. Sauerwein set Mizzou career marks in wins (46), shutouts (21), games started (83), games played in goal (85), games started in goal (82), saves (394) and minutes in goal (7685:13).

• Kaysie Clark (18), Grant (20) and Russell (18) were the first trio of Tiger teammates to all record at least 18 points in a season since 2009.

NCAA SOCCER

- The Missouri Tigers have made the NCAA Tournament field six times in their history, with berths in 1999, 2003, 2007, 2008, 2012 and 2014.
- Mizzou owns a 3-4-2 mark in NCAA Tournament games.
- Seven of Missouri's nine NCAA games have been played at the team's home field of Walton Stadium.
- Mizzou did not play an NCAA Tournament match away from Walton Stadium until 2014.
- Mizzou's first-ever NCAA game, a 3-2 four overtime loss to Marquette in the 1999 first round, stands as Missouri's longest-ever match. The game went 142 minutes.
- Three of Missouri's NCAA games have gone to penalty kicks following two overtime sessions.
- Seven different Tigers have scored in NCAA Tournament games: Michelle Collins, Taylor Grant, Kristen Heil, Danielle Nottingham, Candace Ruff, Reagan Russell, Mallory Stipetich and Nikki Thole.
- Collins, Grant and Thole scored two goals in NCAA games. Both of Thole's came against Marquette in 1999, Collins scored one against SEMO in 2007 and the other against Evansville in 2008, and Grant tallied two against Kansas in 2014.

The 2007 team celebrates after advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Marquette 3, Missouri 2 (4OT)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - The University of Missouri women's soccer team was defeated Wednesday, Nov. 10 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament by Marquette, 3-2 in four overtimes. The match, which was the longest in both programs' history, was decided in the 142nd minute when Marquette's Amy Hnatow scored her first career goal.

After 35 minutes of scoreless play, Marquete got on the board with a score from Kate Gordon, her ninth goal of the season. The score stayed 1-0 at halftime before Marquette added its second goal in the 54th minute. Erin Morgan netted her eighth of the season on a pass from Lannette Rossini and Marquette led the Tigers 2-0.

Just over two minutes later, Nikki Thole put MU on the scoreboard when she knocked home a goalie deflection with a soft headshot. Thole's 22nd of the season got Missouri back in the match and reenergized the Tigers.

After she was hauled down in the penalty box, Thole scored the equalizer on a penalty kick that beat Marquette's goalkeeper low right. From that point on, nearly a full match was played before the next goal was scored.

Three full overtimes, and most of the day's sunlight, came and went with the team's trading opportunities in the extra periods. At 141:13, Hnatow placed a shot over Missouri goalkeeper Jackie Adamec's head from the right side and Marquette had the victory.

Missouri 1, Eastern Illinois 0

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Appearing in the first NCAA Tournament match in four years, the Mizzou Tigers continued their hard fought post-season rally defeating Eastern Illinois 1-0. The victory marks Mizzou's first NCAA Tournament win in the history of the program.

After a lack luster first half, Mizzou didn't waste any time shining up the scoreboard during the second period. Just three minutes into play, Kristen Heil put Mizzou up 1-0 scoring her 10th goal of the season.

Preparing the scoring play deep in the midfield, forward Melissa Peabody sliced a pass to Adriene Davis in the midfield circle. One-touching a perfect pass to Heil at the top of the penalty box. Besting two EIU defenders and keeper Tiffany Groene, Heil deftly delivered the game-winner.

Kansas 2, Missouri 0

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Riding through a roller coaster season, the Missouri soccer team ended the 2003 campaign with loss in the second round of the NCAA Tournament to No. 16-ranked Kansas, 2-0.

Backed by solid defensive play, Mizzou's offensive squad was able to concentrate its efforts on the KU net. Jennifer Nobis pulled out an exhilarating break away, but lost the ball to an aggressive play by Jayhawk keeper Meghan Miller.

Mizzou's defensive squad continued its valiant efforts, thwarting Kansas in the backfield. Unable to best the Tigers one-on-one, the Jayhawk offense finally found fruition in one of their nine cornerkicks. Lobbing a ball into the penalty box, the two teams batted the ball through the arcade of bodies until Smith caught a sharp foot on the ball and sailed it over the goal line.

Down 1-0 with just 13 minutes ticking on the clock, Missouri frantically tried to even out the score. Despite several extraordinary attempts by Davis, the Tigers struggled to come back. The frenzy opened up KU's second scoring play that dropped MU with a 2-0 deficit with just two minutes left to play. Kimberly Karfonta lofted a ball from midfield to Carmel Kaplinger who dribbled the ball to score.

Missouri 1, SEMO 1 (2-0 PK)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - The 23rd-ranked Missouri soccer team tied Southeast Missouri State (SEMO), 1-1, with the Tigers advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament on penalty kicks. The Tigers and Redhawks were scoreless through 67:36 of action before the game was decided, 2-0, on junior Kat Tarr and junior goalkeeper Mallory Forst's shootout shots. This marks Missouri's second time in the 12-year history of the program in which the Tigers have advanced to the second round of the tournament and first since 2003.

Sophomore Michelle Collins came up with Missouri's first goal of the night, dribbling the ball in from the top of the box. Shooting from eight yards out, Collins beat the keeper to the right, scoring 16:26 into the game. The goal was Collins' 12th of the year.

After SEMO tied the game and a scoreless overtime session, five Tigers were selected from the lineup to take Missouri's penalty shots. Tarr made Missouri's first penalty kick attempt but SEMO missed all four of theirs before Forst stepped up and hit her shot to advance the Tigers to the second round.

USC 1, Missouri 0

COLUMBIA, Mo. - The eighth-ranked USC Trojans (16-3-2) defeated the 23rd-ranked Missouri Tigers (13-8-1), 1-0, in the second round of the NCAA Championship Sunday in Columbia, Mo.

USC scored the game-winning goal on a header from less than five yards out by midfielder Ashley Nick with 5:12 remaining in the second overtime period. USC midfielder Megan Ohai tallied the assist off a throw-in.

The first half ended scoreless, with Missouri out shooting the Trojans, 5-3. Missouri's best scoring chance came just four minutes into the game. Alysha Bonnick delivered two shots from inside the box, both saved by USC goalkeeper Kristin Olsen.

USC dominated the first overtime, out-shooting the Tigers, 5-2. Five minutes into overtime USC's Amy Rodriguez ripped a shot from just inside the box that was saved by keeper Mallory Forst. Missouri's only scoring chance came with 18 seconds left when Michelle Collins took a pass from midfielder Mo Redmond and had a break away. After a shifty move, Collins fired a shot to the near post from six yards out but the USC goalie smothered the shot.

Nov. 14, 2008 • Columbia, Mo.

Missouri 2, Evansville 0

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Michelle Collins and Candace Ruff each scored a goal in the first half to give Missouri a first-round victory and send them to the second round.

With rain falling on the field and 14 mph winds coming from the northwest, the Missouri women decided to waste no time in securing their spot in Sunday's regional championship game. For the first time this year the Tigers played in the rain and showed little struggle in earning their 12th shutout of the season. Michelle Collins started things early for Mizzou as she took a pass from Crystal Wagner and sent a shot past Evansville goalkeeper Theresa Bagby in the third minute of play. The goal marked Collins seventh on the season and gave the Tigers a 1-0 lead.

The Aces weren't able to keep Mizzou quiet. Just thirty minutes after Collins' goal Ashley Hamblin passed one to Candace Ruff for the Tiger's second score of the game and Ruff's second career goal. Missouri recorded 16 shots in the first period while Evansville attempted just one.

NCAA Tournament Second Round
Nov. 16, 2008 • Columbia, Mo.

Illinois 1, Missouri 1 (4-3 PK)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Missouri ended its season in a penalty kick shootout to the Illinois Fighting Illini 4-3 after a 1-1 game after two overtimes in the second round of the NCAA Tournament.

Freshman Kelsey Blincow, sophomore Alysha Bonnick and junior Bree Thornton all converted their penalty kicks against Illinois goalkeeper Alexandra Kapicka. The Illini made their fourth of five attempts and Kapicka made a save on senior Mallory Forst's shot to send Illinois to the sweet sixteen.

Illinois dominated early play in the second half and the Illini went up 1-0 in the 56th minute when Jackie Santacaterina flicked a ball up to Chichi Nweke. The forward fired a 14-yard shot past Dittamore and into the lower far post.

Missouri responded in the 74th minute when junior Michelle Collins played a ball up to sophomore Alysha Bonnick, who sent a pass to a wide open Mallory Stipetich. The freshman one-timed a 15-yard shot to the left of Kapicka and into the net for a 1-1 game.

Regulation ended with both teams tied at 1-1 so the contest went to overtime. With 12 seconds left in the second overtime, Missouri earned a free kick five yards past the box. Andrighetto floated a ball to the far post but Bonnick's header few wide of the goal to thwart the scoring chance and send the game to a shootout.

2012

NCAA Tournament First Round
Nov. 11, 2012 • Columbia, Mo.

Illinois 1, Missouri 1 (3-0 PK)

COLUMBIA, Mo. - Following a 1-1 game after 110 minutes of play between Mizzou and Illinois in the first round of the NCAA Tournament, the contest went to a penalty kick shootout, where Illinois advanced 3. The Tigers outshot the Fighting Illini 28-19 in the contest but had numerous shots hit off the post. Missouri concludes its season with a 14-7-1 record, while Illinois goes to 10-8-4.

The Tigers could not convert on their first three penalty kicks, while the Fighting Illini made their first three attempts to advance.

Illinois went up 1-0 in the 19th minute but Missouri battled back and used a goal from junior Danielle Nottingham to knot the score at 1-1 in the 53rd minute. Redshirt-freshman Lauren Flynn played a ball across the field to Nottingham, who was stationed outside the left corner of the box. Nottingham ripped a 20-yarder that sailed past Illinois' goalie and into the upper left netting. The tally was Nottingham's first of the season and ninth of her career. Flynn earned her first career assist on the play.

Mizzou sent a flurry of six shots toward the goal in the final nine minutes of regulation but could not take the lead. With just seconds remaining in the second half Grant blasted a shot but it flew just wide left of the goal.

Following a scoreless first overtime session, the Tigers again seemed likely to score in the second overtime. The home team managed to earn three corner kicks and got off three shots but again could not score to send the contest to a penalty kick shootout.

2014

NCAA Tournament First Round
Nov. 16, 2016 • Lawrence, Kan.

Missouri 3, Kansas 1

LAWRENCE, Kan. - Senior Taylor Grant tallied two goals and junior Reagan Russell added another as the Mizzou soccer team advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament with a 3-1 win over Kansas Oct. 16 in Lawrence, Kan.

The Tigers improved to 12-6-3 on the season, while the Jayhawks ended the year with a 15-6 record.

Missouri was on the attack from the first whistle and wasted no time scoring the first goal of the match. Junior Reagan Russell sent a long cross from the right side of the field to the far post. Grant, stationed near the post, chested the ball down into the net from a yard out for a 1-0 Tiger advantage.

Grant stuck again early in the second half for a 2-0 Mizzou advantage in the 51st minute. Senior Kaysie Clark played up a perfect pass to Grant, who ran onto the ball at the top of the box. The Kansas keeper came off her line but Grant took a touch and sent a low shot past the goalkeeper and into the lower left netting for her team leading ninth goal of the season.

A goal from the Jayhawks in the 57th minute cut Mizzou's lead to 2-1 to give Kansas some hope.

In the 66th minute, Russell ran down the right sideline, ran into the box and slotted a low shot from 10-yards out into the far post for a 3-1 Missouri lead. The goal was the seventh of the year for Russell to put her season point total to 18. Grant earned her second assist of the year and fifth point of the match on the play.

Nov. 21, 20014 • Stanford, Calif.

Washington 1, Missouri 0 (OT)

STANFORD, Calif. - No. 24 Washington scored 1:03 into overtime to end the Mizzou soccer team's NCAA Tournament run with a 1-0 loss to the Huskies in the second round on Friday, Nov. 21 in Stanford, Calif. The Tigers and Huskies played 91 minutes of scoreless soccer before Washington ended Mizzou's season in extra time.

Early in the first overtime session, Washington's Kimberly Keever made a run down the left flank, cut into the box and unleashed a right-footed attempt toward goal. The shot flew over redshirt senior keeper McKenzie Sauerwein's arms and into the right side netting for the winner.

The Huskies had a 17-10 edges in shots, although second half saw both squads send five attempts on net.

Sauerwein, who set Mizzou's all-time games started record with the 83rd start of her four-year career in the match, recorded three saves during the contest.

AUDREY J. WALTON STADIUM

The Audrey J. Walton Track-Soccer Stadium was opened in 1996 following a generous $1 million donation from Mrs. Walton.

Seating renovations were completed in 1998 bringing the complex maximum attendance to 2,500 fans per game. As the Tiger program grew in popularity, the stadium warranted another upgrade in a lighting project completed in 2001. Various supporters donated $160,000 to install a state of the art lighting system.

Rejuvenating he facility in 2004, the Mizzou Athletic Department completed a field turf project replenishing the playing field with new Bermuda sod.

The Audrey J. Walton Track-Soccer Stadium has played host to five NCAA soccer tournaments.
